

Blaze!

TTRH 4-6-14

The winds of change, they are a blowin'
I can taste it in the air
Bright new horizons where I'm goin'
And I'll let my heart take me there

*So I'll glide on the wings of tomorrow
And I'll fly to where my dreams touch the sky
And I will follow the compass of the fire in my soul
And I'll blaze until that new day is mine!*

Sometimes a catalyst is all that's needed
To turn a spark into a flame
It's time to burn with a love that has no end
And fire, fire is my name! My name!

*So I'll stand in the all of my being
And I'll sing with the voices on high
And I will follow the compass of the fire in my soul
And I'll blaze until this new day is mine!*

The winds of change, they are upon me
No longer standing in a haze
My way is clear and my star is burning bright
And I...

...Blaze! I Blaze!
Watch me burn baby!
Watch me burn baby!
